

Information Leaflet

EUROPEAN MIGRATION NETWORK (EMN)

What is the EMN?

The European Migration Network aims to provide up-to-date, objective, reliable and comparable information on migration and asylum to support policymaking in the EU. It also provides the general public with such information through its website.

Who is involved?

The European Commission, DG Migration and Home Affairs co-ordinates the EMN, assisted by two Service Providers plus in co-operation with National Contact Points (EMN NCPs) in each Member State, and in Norway, who in turn develop a national network consisting of a wide-range of relevant stakeholders.

Each EMN NCP is appointed by their national government, which results in a variety of types of organisation being designated. These are primarily Ministries of Interior and of Justice, specialised government agencies dealing with migration, international protection and/ or citizenship plus Research Institutes, Non-Governmental Organisations and in some cases, the national office of an International Organisation for Migration. Most EMN NCPs have national websites which provide the general public with information on migration and asylum in their respective Member States.

The EMN Steering Board, chaired by the European Commission and consisting of one representative from each Member State plus Observers from the European Parliament and from Norway, provides strategic guidance on the EMN's activities.

What does the EMN do?

The EMN responds to information needs through Reports, Studies, Ad-Hoc Queries, Policy Briefs

(EMN Inform), the EMN Bulletin and Glossary. It does not normally engage in primary research: instead, its key strength is to collect, document and make available, in an accessible and comparative manner, data and information held or collected at national and EU level. It further analyses and synthesises this information to improve its comparability and harmonisation at EU level in order to contribute to evidence-based policymaking. Dissemination of information takes place primarily via the EMN website and publications.

The EMN is a multi-level network: at EU level, EMN NCPs meet regularly, as well as network and collaborate with other EU level agencies and institutions. These include for example, the Commission's Eurostat Directorate General, the National Contact Points on Integration, the Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA), the European Asylum Support Office (EASO) and the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (Frontex). The EMN also provides on-going support to the launched EU Immigration Portal.

At national level, each EMN NCP develops a network involving partners within their Member State with expertise in migration and asylum from a wide stakeholder group, e.g. from government, (academic) research community, and NGOs. The national networks aim to secure a close exchange of information with policymakers at the national level, to better understand their information needs and to enhance the EMN's role in responding quickly to such needs.

In 2014, the EMN established the Return and Reintegration Experts Group (REG). REG aims at increasing operational cooperation among Member States in order to enhance the coherence between the voluntary return schemes and reintegration projects. The REG produces a range of outputs, e.g. country Factsheets on Return forming a Return Directory.

What does the EMN produce?

★ REPORTS

The EMN produces yearly Annual Policy Reports, which outline the most significant political and legislative (including EU) developments, as well as public debates in the area of migration and international protection, within the Member States and Norway. Whilst previously these contributed to the Commission's Annual Reports on Immigration and Asylum, reviewing the progress made in the implementation of asylum and migration policy, since 2014 they constitute the only report providing an EU overview on Immigration and Asylum. The 2014 Annual Report on Immigration and Asylum is available on the EMN website.

★ COUNTRY FACTSHEETS

Drawing on information collected and analysed from the Annual Policy Report, the EMN Country Factsheets provide a succinct summary of the main developments in the year in each Member State and Norway, whilst at the same time, presenting an overview of the most recent migration and international protection statistics.

★ STUDIES

The EMN also produces Studies, on topics (see below) relevant to policymakers at national and EU levels, to meet both long-term and short-term needs.

HOW ARE STUDY TOPICS SELECTED?

Study topics are selected from proposals made by individual or groups of EMN NCP(s) and/ or the European Commission, based on their relevance to policymaking in the Member States and for the Commission and its agencies. Topics may be proposed for in-depth, strategic studies, with long-term relevance, or for shorter, focussed studies to meet a short-term information need. The Steering Board reviews and formally approves the selection of topics within the context of an annual EMN Work Programme.

HOW DOES THE EMN PRODUCE ITS STUDIES?

The EMN first agrees on common specifications for its studies, to facilitate better comparability between countries, working closely with relevant policymakers. Each EMN NCP produces a National Report, according to the common specifications and often involving contributions from members of their national network. A comparative Synthesis Report is then produced by the EMN Service Provider, bringing together the main findings from the national reports, and placing these within an EU perspective (e.g. by relating to recent policy initiatives).

WHAT STUDIES HAS THE EMN PRODUCED SO FAR?

So far in 2015, the EMN has produced the following studies:

1. Determining labour shortages and the need for labour migration from third countries in the EU (November 2015);
2. Dissemination of information on voluntary return to irregular migrants residing outside organised facilities (October 2015);
3. Integration of Asylum Seekers and beneficiaries of International protection (forthcoming in early 2016);

4. Changes in immigration status and purpose of stay (forthcoming in early 2016).

WHAT STUDIES WILL THE EMN PRODUCE IN 2016?

In 2016, the EMN is expected to produce studies on the following topics:

1. Resettlement and Humanitarian Admission Programmes in Europe – what works?;
2. Approaches to rejected asylum seekers in the EU Member States;
3. Searching for a family life. The Right to Family Reunification: National Practices;
4. Illegal employment of third country nationals.

Other recent reports are listed here and via the hyperlinks you can download both the Synthesis Report and the corresponding National Reports:

1. Policies, practices and data on unaccompanied minors in the EU Member States and Norway in 2014 (May 2015);
2. Admitting third-country nationals for business purposes (May 2015);
3. The use of detention and alternatives to detention in the context of immigration policies (2014);
4. Good practices in return and reintegration (2014);
5. Migrant access to social security and healthcare (2013);

8. Attracting Highly Qualified and Qualified Third-Country Nationals (2013);
9. Intra-EU mobility of third-country nationals (2013);
10. The immigration of international students to EU Member States (2012);
11. Establishing identity for international protection: challenges and practices (2012);
12. Misuse of the right to family reunification (2012);
13. Practical responses for reducing irregular migration (2012);
14. Visa policy as migration channel (2012);
15. Temporary and circular migration: empirical evidence, current policy practice and future options in EU Member States (2011);
16. Satisfying labour demand through migration in EU Member States (2011);
17. The different national practices concerning granting of non-EU harmonised protection statuses (2010);
18. Programmes and strategies in the EU Member States fostering Assisted Return to and Re-integration in Third Countries (2010);

19. Policies on reception, return and integration arrangements for, and numbers of, unaccompanied minors – an EU comparative study (2010).

AD-HOC QUERIES

Ad-Hoc Queries are a means by which EMN NCPs and the Commission can collect information from the Member States in a relatively short period of time on a wide range of asylum and migration-related issues, e.g. legal migration, irregular migration, borders, return, visas etc. The network produces compilations of the responses to Ad-Hoc Queries, which rapidly assess the perspective of responding Member States in relation to a specific topic.

EMN ANNUAL CONFERENCES AND EVENTS

The EMN, through its national networks, delivers each year two annual EMN Conferences plus an extensive range of national events, conferences and roundtables, sharing and disseminating information on topical migration- and international protection-related issues.

In 2015, the EMN Conference "Attracting and retaining talent in Europe" took place on the 19th and 20th of March in Riga, Latvia. Some 135 participants attended the Conference, including representatives from the European Commission, 26 EMN National Contact Points, the business community, international and regional organisations, National and International Academics and researchers, and representatives from Government Departments in third countries. The main conclusions of the Conference can be found on the EMN website.

Delegates at the EMN Conference 2015 in Latvia

The second EMN Conference in 2015 "30 years of the Schengen Agreement The future of Schengen:

challenges and opportunities” was held on 7th of October in Esch-Belval, Luxembourg. Some 180 participants attended the Conference, including representatives from the European Commission, 26 EMN National Contact Points, the business community, international and regional organisations, national and international academics and researchers, civil society, and representatives from Government departments in third countries. The Conference conclusions are also available on the EMN website.

POLICY BRIEFS: EMN INFORMS

These provide succinct, key findings and messages to policymakers on a specific topic based on the results of information gathered and analysed by the EMN, for example, from Reports and Studies, or from Ad-Hoc Queries.

EMN BULLETINS

These provide up to date, topical information required by, and of relevance to, policymakers on a quarterly basis. They highlight recent EU and National developments, and relevant information extracted from the EMN's existing knowledge, plus latest published statistics, primarily from Eurostat.

EMN GLOSSARY AND THESAURUS

The EMN Glossary improves comparability by enabling a common understanding and use of terms and definitions relating to asylum and migration. The Glossary draws on a variety of sources, primarily those given in the EU asylum and immigration acquis, and makes these available in the majority of Member State languages.

EMN STATUS REPORTS

The EMN produces an annual Status Report, reporting on its activities and achievements. The Status Report is adopted as a Commission Staff Working Paper and formally transmitted to the European Parliament, the Council, the Commission, the Economic and Social Committee and the Committee of the Regions.

Where can I find more information?

All EMN reports and studies, including the National Reports and Synthesis Reports, Ad-Hoc Query compilations, Country Factsheets, Glossary, EMN Bulletins and EMN Informs, are all published on the EMN website.

Who are the current EMN NCPs?

In each Member State, an EMN NCP consists of at least three experts either from the same entity or from different entities. In the latter case, one entity acts as the national coordinator and, in such cases, it is their details which are given overleaf. You may contact the relevant EMN NCP for your Member State via these contact details.
