

EMN Austria National Conference 2025:

Building Orderly Migration Systems through International Cooperation and Innovation

13 November 2025, 09:00 – 17:00

Hotel Steigenberger Herrenhof, Herrengasse 10, 1010 Vienna, Austria

09:00	Doors open & welcome coffee
09:30	Opening remarks - Marian Benbow Pfisterer, Chief of Mission, IOM Country Office for Austria - Peter Webinger, Director-General for Migration and International Affairs, Austrian Federal Ministry of the Interior
Panel I: Navigating Uncertainty – The Role of International Organizations in Building Resilient Migration Systems
09:45	Content: The panel will examine the role of international organizations in managing migration within shifting geopolitical and financial contexts. Panellists will address strategies for enhancing cooperation with Member States, implementing new approaches to collaboration, and responding to emerging migration trends to promote sustainable and orderly migration. Panel discussion: - Peter Webinger, Director-General for Migration and International Affairs, Austrian Federal Ministry of the Interior - Azzeddine Farhane, Ambassador of Morocco to Austria, Embassy of the Kingdom of Morocco in Austria - Arthur Erken, Regional Director for Europe and Central Asia, IOM - Paul Stromberg, Deputy Director of the Regional Bureau for Europe, UNHCR - Martin Taschner, Head of Unit Migration Management Preparedness, Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs, European Commission Q&A with the audience
11:30-12:00 NETWORKING BREAK
12:00-13:00 LUNCH BREAK
Panel II: Innovating the External Dimension – Towards a Holistic Approach
13:00	Content: This panel will examine holistic, partnership-based approaches to migration management. Panellists will discuss how to link regular migration pathways with early information provision along migration routes, development cooperation, and innovative instruments. Panel discussion: - Bernd Brünner, Managing Director of the Austrian Development Agency (ADA) - Franziska Kandolf, Deputy Director General for Migration and International Affairs, Austrian Federal Ministry of Interior

	- Dean Jorgensen, Migration Program Manager, Embassy of Canada - Sedef Dearing, Director Migration Dialogues & Cooperation, ICMPD Q&A with the audience
14:30-15:00 – COFFEE BREAK
Panel III: Shaping Pathways – Skills, Mobility and Migration Partnerships in Action
15:00	Content: The panel will explore how the expansion of regular migration pathways can foster effective cooperation with third countries. Panellists will discuss programmes and partnerships that facilitate close coordination between countries of origin and destination, like Skills Mobility and Talent Partnerships, highlighting practical examples and examining key success factors for fair, demand-driven, and sustainable migration cooperation. Panel discussion: - Thomas Doblhoff, Senior EAGLE Project Coordinator at the Coordination of International Affairs, Directorate – General for Integration, Office of Religious Affairs and Ethnic Groups, Austrian Federal Chancellery - Ingrid Normand, Director of the French Office for Immigration and Integration (OFII) delegation in Tunisia - Rabeb Ben Khalifa, Senior Employment Adviser at the International Cooperation Unit, National Agency for Employment and Self-Employment, Tunisia - Michael Sauer, Vice Dean of the Department of Social Policy and Social Security Studies/Professor for Social Policy, Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg Q&A with the audience
16:45	Final remarks - Bettina Baumgartner, Deputy Director for EU and International Migration, Austrian Federal Ministry of the Interior - Saskia Heilemann, Head of the Policy Research and Migration Law Unit, IOM Country Office for Austria (EMN Austria National Coordinator)
17:00	End of the conference
	Moderation Jason Theede, Senior Regional Labour Mobility & Human Development Specialist, IOM Regional Office for Europe and Central Asia

DATA PROTECTION NOTICE FOR EXTERNAL IOM EVENTS

The International Organization for Migration (“IOM”, “we”, “us”), as the event organizer, is responsible for handling your personal data collected during your participation in this event. When you participate in an event we organize, we may collect and process information related to you as an individual (your Personal Data), which may include your name, job title, email address, contact information, photographs and video recordings. We require your Personal Data for the purposes of Event Management, Event Follow-up, Event Promotion and Internal Administration to coordinate and organize events, to contact you with updates on events and future events, and to raise awareness about events via different media channels. We may share your Personal Data with our co-hosts/event partners, third parties engaged to assist us in the organization and coordination of events, auditors, third party media outlets, certification bodies and/or with other event participants. You are generally entitled to the rights to access, rectify, erase, or object to the processing of your Personal Data which we collect and handle as well as withdraw your consent.

For more information on how we may handle Personal Data in connection with our events and further information on your rights, please refer to our Data Protection Notice for External Events.

If you have any questions or concerns on the above, please reach out to the IOM Office or Department organizing the event at emnaustria@iom.int.

The European Migration Network (EMN) is coordinated by the European Commission with National Contact Points established in each EU Member State (except Denmark) plus in EMN Observer Countries including Norway, Georgia, the Republic of Moldova, Ukraine, Montenegro, Armenia, Serbia, North Macedonia and Albania. The National Contact Point Austria is financed by the European Commission and the Austrian Federal Ministry of the Interior.